

Retirement Frequently Asked Questions

Retirees can continue health, dental and vision coverage into retirement at 100% of the monthly premium. Retirees may only continue coverage for benefits in which they were enrolled in as of their date of retirement. Additionally, retirees are ineligible to add dependents at a future date, regardless of qualifying life event. For example, if the retiree was only enrolled in medical coverage for themselves at retirement, the retiree cannot add dental or vision benefits or add any dependents in the future.

If the retiree chooses to cancel coverage for any benefit, then any dependents currently on the plan(s) are eligible for COBRA.
